

MÍLE BUÍOCHAS

It's been a tough few years and still our community thrived. Our resilience was tested and at times a light at the end of the tunnel seemed a little dimmer than usual.

Our altar shelter project had to be delayed for a while as we observed public health restrictions. Over the last twelve months, with the help and support of so many within our wider community and our diaspora, we got this 'new/old' structure here in Kilnaughtin completed in line with planning permission and within budget.

As part of this project we also launched our website Kilnaughtin.ie and found some space to create a Covid Remembrance Garden dedicated to all those who passed away during lockdown.

This multipurpose Altar Shelter and Covid Remembrance Garden is designed to provide a spiritual oasis for all who come to visit. We hope that visitors will sit awhile and enjoy the peace and solitude that encompasses Kilnaughtin Church and Graveyard.
